Bob Wolfgram presents

USS Midway: Live the Adventure,

Honor the Legend

Sunday, May 15 at 1:30

The USS Midway presentation is part of the Vista Branch Weekend Cultural Program Series Commissioned a week after the end of World War II, the USS Midway embarked on an unprecedented 47-year odyssey that set new standards in naval aviation. More than 225,000 Americans took part in the odyssey that ended after Midway served as the Persian Gulf flagship in Desert Storm. Longest-serving U.S. Navy carrier of the 20th century and largest ship in the world, 1945-1955.

Vista Library will host USN Retired Master Chief and USS Midway docent Robert Wolfgram on Sunday, May 15, 2011 at 1:30 pm. Bob will discuss the USS Midway while showing an informative PowerPoint presentation.

Sunset Poets

Sunday, May 15 at 2:30pm

Featuring Lois P. Jones and Susan Rogers.

Vista Library hosts the Sunset Poets monthly Sunday afternoon readings that begin with a featured poet, then an open-mike reading, usually 2-3 times around the room. After the reading everyone is invited to join us for conversation with the featured poet and each other.

Introduction to Meditation

Monday, May 16 at 11 am

Join us for a fun, one hour workshop with Instructor Barbara K. Brown. Meditation gives you a break from stress. Learn breathing techniques, visualization and affirmations.

Author Dolph Brostrom

Sunday, May 22, at

2: 00PM

Continuing the Weekend Cultural Series, the Vista Library hosts author Dolph Brostrom.

Dolph Brostrom was born in New Castle, Australia in 1921. He was working in the shipyards and attending college part time when his world was shattered by the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. Dolph decided to join the Navy and served until the end of World War II. The true narratives in this book are told in an informative and often light-hearted style. This storyteller shares reminiscences that are often filled with excitement.

Book to Movie Book Club

First read the book; then come watch the movie and discuss with your fellow book/movie aficionados on the last Saturday of each month at 2 pm. Sign up at the Reference Desk. Limited to 10 participants each month.
